University of South Alabama College of Nursing
Nurse Practitioner Residency Program

The University of South Alabama College of Nursing /Advanced Nursing Education Nurse Practitioner Residency Program is a collaboration with USA Health, AltaPointe Health, and Coastal Family Health Center. The goal of the project is to improve nurse practitioner readiness to practice in primary care, behavioral health and women's health with a focus on underserved rural and urban communities.

APPLICATION

Applications for the 2026-2027 residency cohort are now being accepted. Four residents will be accepted for the residency program which will begin this Fall. Note: The residency is funded by the Health Resources and Services Administration and the number of residents we can accept each year will be contingent on the availability of funds.
